Now these women gave the hard-boiled male politicians a shock they never will forget. They could not be dealt with like men delegates. Their mental processes differed from those of the men in important particulars. The women west directly to the point without bealing about the bush and the manner in which they sweetly and blithely brushed aside precedents, forms, technicalities, expedients and all the other considerations which bulk large in the male mind was exceedingly tantalizing to Mr. Hague and all the other bosses of the prefemirist era.

And then the women were exasperating sticklers for principle, and never would sit down with the bosses in a back room in the good old-fashioned way and rationally consider expedients. What was more, they were so stubborn on the wery point. A man would yield. He went into the fight expecting to yield if he found himself licked and he thought he could tell when he was licked as quickly as any when it was time to start trading and save something out of the preferrient of Labor from May 15 to June 15, last. Douglas, with a long stick and bailing wire, snared the beast and pulled him down.

The enraged cat sprang, but Douglas dodged and, being a big man, was able to keep it from him by whirling it around him at the end of the wire. He was soon in dismay for he began to grow dizzy. He swung the animal around and around until he could stand it no longer and hurled it against the cliff, running for the automobile as soon as he could get up.

MAUDE FULTON WILL WRITE FOR PICTURES

It was just bound to happen.

capes, first or last, writing for the movies.

Now it is Maud Fulton, author of "The Brat," "The Humming Bird," and other successful plays, who has promised to honor and obey, for a consideration, the requirements of a picture company. Miss Fulton vesterday signed a contract to write a series of original stories and adaptations for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Negotiations were made through Irving G. Thalberg, and it is under his supervision that Miss Fulton will work.

There is no more interesting figure in the theatrical world than that of Maud Fulton. First known as a newspaper woman and a as a newspaper woman and a writer of short stories, she then went upon the stage and achieved went upon the stage and achieved instantaneous success as a dancer. With William Rock she formed the dancing team of Rock and Fulton, and just at the peak of her popularity in this field she abandoned her dancing career and took up playwriting. She starred in several of these plays, including "The Brat" and "The Humming Bird." Miss Fulton's first work for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will be the adaptation of the old stage play, "The Charity Ball," in which Maude Adams achieved her first brilliant success under the Frohman management. So it looks as though for a person by the name of Maud "The Charity Ball" is good luck.

Fine Reception for Third Bowl Summer Concert

University night was celebrated ast evening at the Hollywood wl symphony concert. A mis-Bowl symphony concert. A miscellaneous program was made up of compositions by Dvorak, Gluck, Brahms and Rimsky-Korsakov.
Of principal importance was the suite "Scheherazade," by Rimsky-Korsakov, that colorful picture in tone of the sea, Sinbad and Bagdad. That subtle orientalism which the composer has deftly imbued into the music, Conductor Aifred Heriz brought out with that mastery which is his. It is a picture of kaleidoscopic brilliance, and was painted vividly. A fine climax was achieved, and this, because it was built up gradually from the first plaintive melody to the tempestuous conclusion.

ak's overture, "Carnival," which likewise received an interesting performance. Gluck followed: "Dance of the Blessed Spirits," from "Orpheus," with a well-played flute solo by Andre Marguers.

Because of a certain elemental appeal which is in the impetuous Hungarian Dances by Brahma, the two played brought forth especial applause from the audience. They are always interesting on a program, for there is opportunity for such divergence of opinion in matters of interpretation. The performance last evening was marked with fine strength, verve and animation.

This colorful picturization of the novel of the gold-rush days of the novel of the gold-rush days of California and Arisona furnishes interesting drama to everyone. A vivid love-adventure story of the Painted Desert of Arisona, which relates the story of a wanderer of the wasteland who sought his freedom and fortune in the desert—a man discontented with the shams of city life who tried to forget the past in the quest for gold.

Harold Lloyd's "Girl Shy" continues to cause riotous laughter at Tally's. Harold portrays a small-town boy, making his character a sympathetic, likable one—a custom which he always follows. The boy is bashful and scared to death the past in the quest for gold.

The fans booed and clapped derisively all through the fourth round. There was very little action in the first two sessions. In the disc, Jimmy gave away about the third, Murphy woke up and which will be renewed in the historic $15,000 Chicago derby tomorrow.

The Hawthorne track, deep in mud for two days, was fast drying today and unless there are heavy rains before post time, the course will be lightning fast when the derby is decided. Nine king-pins of the 5-year-old division have accepted the derby issue, in the oversight list.

In the betting August Belmont's Ladkin, fresh from eastern triumphs in which he conquered the best in his division in the Atlantic seaboard section, was made the favorite. Black Gold was naturally the second choice and the oralizers may find so much Chicago support for the Kentucky Derby winner when the post-time speculation opens, that he will be the favorite when the bugle sounds.

Duncan and Mitchell Trim Hagen and Mac Smith in 72-Hole Golf Match on Oxhey Links, 4 and 2

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

OXHEY (Eng.) July 11.—George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, leading British professional solfers, today avenged their defeat of last year at the hands of Walter Hagen and his compatrion MacDonald Smith, 4 up and 2 to play, in their 72-hole match for a purse of 1300 and international foursome honors.

Last year the American team won by 4 up and 3 to play. On the first thirty-six holes of this year's contest, played yesterday at the St. George's Club, the British pair finished 4 up. At the conclusion of the last half of the match this afternoon over the Oxhey course, the Americans had succumbed and Duncan and Mitchell prepared to split the 1300 purse. Hagen and Smith will receive 550 each as the losers end.

The American contenders started today's rounds confronted by the big task of overcoming the lead of four holes which their opponents had stowed away. During the first part of the morning round it looked as though they would do this easily. They were both driving long and straight and putting well. But at the tenth Hagen started missing his five and six-foot putts and from then on his green work was not in the championship class.

Today's battles, like these of yesterday, took place on the greens, Here Duncan and Mitchell kept the upper hand even in the face of cup and passed on.

Had the champion elected to lay back and pop Senor Luis at long range until he had made an opening for one killing punch the South American would not have come as close to winning the world's heavyweight title as he did. Harry Wills's board of strategy, headed by "Silent Paddy" Mullins, has analyzed and dissected the Dempsey-Firpe rough house. The board has decided that there will be no rough house at Boyle's Thirty Acres next month. Harry is going to use science and skill; to overcome Firpo's crude but tremendous assaults. Firpo has always been something of a mark for a good straight left, and it is highly probable that Wills will unlimber such a weapon in the coming scrap and use it quite persistently. A long, searching left lab would make it difficult for beand Luis to get set for one of those roundhouse, rights that start from the floor and gather terrilic morner.

When this blow lands on the spot for which it is atmed there is yeary apt to be a histure in the life of the person hit. There is not a doubt in the world that if the terrific smash that finally lifted Dempsey out of the ring and spread him in the lap of a defenseless war correspondent had hit the target for which it was simed Senor Luis Angel Firpo would be sitting pretty in Buenos Aires today with the world's heavy-weight crown resting jauntily on his tawny dome.

WILDNESS SAVES CHAMPION Wil.DNESS SAVES CHAMPION
The blow was aimed at Dempesey's chin. It struck him on the left shoulder. Had it caught him on that part of the chin known in polite circles as the "button" they would probably have carried Jack to his dressing room on a shutter. It was Firpo's wildness that saved the situation for the Champion.

When Harry Wills establishes his training camp at Southampton. L. I. to begin the long grind of preparing for his tussie with the Wild Bull of the Pampas he will concentrate on speed and skill. He will surround himself with sparring partners whose styles are calculated.

DAILY TRADE TALK More About the New Gas Issue; Economist Expects

L. M. Maynard, consulting economist, director of the bureau of concinit, director of the bureau of economist, director of the bureau of economist research and first assistant and a cashier of the National City Bank of Los Angeles, struck a distinct note of optimism in an address to the Purchasing Agents' Association and throughout a born-bardment of questions which followed his talk.

Dealing with fundamentals of business, Mr. Maynard reaches the conclusion that, while some further economist, will be registered, they will be mild in action and short in duration. "There is greater possibility right now," he says, "for a business upturn than has existed in any other similar cycle period of history."

This upturn, in the expectation of the economist, will be every broad and strong and will be registered and strong and will contain the upward business movement will come in an easy-money period and when considered the three one of the minds of business men. This conclusion is based on the fact that the upward business movement will come in an easy-money period and when considered the time one of the most important of the economic cycle in that it gives opportunity to every business man to study to every business man to study today's dull trading. Early steadiness gave way to reactionary tendencies, which resulted in scattering 1 to 2 points losses throughtout the foreign, railroad and industrial lists.

Uneasiness over the reported spreads of the Soo Paulo revolution caused further heavy selling of Brazilian bonds.

Expectations that the consummation of pending railroad mergers would be deferred until after election was held partly responsible for the lagging interest in railroad securities. Most of the issues which would be affected by consolidation, such as the International Great Northern lines, moved slightly lower.

Independent strength, however, was noted in several industrial mortgages. Wilson convertible 6s bounded up 3½ points, recovering from a recent wave of profit taking. Progress reported in the readjustment of the Wickwire Spencer Steel Corporation's finances contributed to a gain of 2½ points in the company's bonds.

CRIME COMMISSION'S STAND AS TO NEW CHIEF OF POLICE

To remove any false impression which may exist in regard to its attitude toward the appointment of a Chief of Police, the Crime Commission of Los Angeles yesterday issued the following is not urging and has not urged the appointment of any particular man as Chief of Police to succeed Chief Vollmer. Nor is it opposing the appointment of any particular individual.

The Crime Commission hopes that the new Chief of Police will be the best qualified man available to discharge the duties of his office and one who will intelligently, industriously and honestly apply his abilities to that task. This commission will support to the full extent of its power the efforts that any Chief of Police may make to build up an honestly conducted, modern and efficient police department, one free from pernicious political activities and one which will make life and property in Los Angeles not only as safe as esewhere but safer. m ***************

Ranging across the city night after night, the "tape bandits" preyed on service stations, sometimes visiting as many as half a dozen in one evening. The money they obtained is estimated by deputy sheriffs to have amounted to thousands of dollars. Pursued constantly by deputy sheriffs, the gangsters used every artifice to disguise themselves and the automobile they used in the robberies.
When they apparently believed that the tape across their nose no longer would serve as a disguise, they removed it and adopted the system of entering the oil stations, robbing the operator and walking down the street to their car with a five-gallon can of oil in their hands to allay suspicion.

Episcopalians Plan Impressive Service Tomorrow at New Edifice on Figueroa

Dedication services will be conducted tomorrow morning in St. Paul's Cathedral at 616 South Figueros street. The dedication of the new church is of tremendous interest to Episcopalians throughout the city, as it definitely marks the passing of the old Pro-Cathedral which served for so many years as the religious home of early residents of Los Angeles.

was built in 1883 on the site now occupied by the Biltmore it was on the outskirts of the city, which had its business center at Temple and Main streets. Across the years the tide of commerce slowly rose, swept up to Hill street, crossed Central Park—now Pershing Square—and at last engulfed the old church that so many thousands of worshipers had known and loved.

old church that so many thousands of worshipers had known and loved.

As the years passed the ground it occupied became increasingly valuable and persistent efforts were made by business men to buy it. All offers were refused, and for a long time Dean William E. MacCormack, who had been there for seventeen years, could not entertain the thought of parting with it. But in 1921 the owners of the present Biltmore began casting covetous eyes upon it, and at last named a price that could not be refused.

The new building was begun eighteen months ago and, with the site occupied, has cost about $700,000. Something of the sentiment that surrounded the old church has been carried to the new, and many members of the congregation tomorrow will recall the sedication of the Pro-Cathe-

Workers Clash on Lofty Platform With Hammers; One May Die, Other Held

A battle between two earpenters above the street ended yesterday in the arrest of one of the workmen on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon while the other was removed to the Receiving Hospital to be treated for numerous lacerations about his head.

The man under arrest is Elmer Fulton, 66 years of age. His victim, in the hospital in critical condition, is John Kelly, a war veteran of 2024 South Vermont avenue.

The two men fought it out on one of the scaffolds swinging from the top of a building nearing completion at Wilshire Boulevard and Vermont avenue. The scaffold was suspended more than thirty feet in the air. above the street ended yesterday in

There had been considerable ill-feeling between Kelly and Fulton for some time. other workmen stated. Yesterday Fulton, who was the boss carpenter on the job, criticised Kelly's work and the latter is said to have answered with some heat.

Fulton, brandishing a hammer, is said to have leaped at Kelly and to have struck him repeatedly on the head. The two men grappled within view of several scores of pedestrians. For a time it seemed that both men would crash to their death from the scaffold, but other workmen finally succeeded in reaching and separating them. Wilshire police were summoned. Patrolman Gundelfinger had Kelly removed to the hospital and placed Fulton under arrest.

SOON SEPARATED The couple were married. May 3, 1924, and separated June 21, 1924, according to Pierce, who stated his wife faisely accused him of stealing $1700 worth of diamonds belonging to her. Mrs. Pierce, he stated, caused the District Attorney's office to investigate Pierce and called him a "thief" and a "burglar." Pierce also asserted on information and belief that his wife was practising medicine without a license. He stated a part of his duties as her husband-partner was to send out letters to her patients.

CHARGES CRUELTY
Pierce based his divorce action on grounds of crueity, asserting his wife threatened to kill him and make statements which would damage his reputation. He declared that since she "discharged" him from his position as her assistant, he has been unable to obtain other employment because of her asserted statements.

The complaints in the actions were prepared by Attorney W. P.
Redmond.

Soldier Finds Clew Near Spot Where Two Bodies Were Discovered

Gets Probation

Dolando Dean, 22 years of age, who was convicted in Judge Avery's court several weeks ago of grand larceny, was admitted to probation of two years yesterday on recommendation of Probation Officer George W. Neily.

Dean was arrested in connection with the theft April 16 last of $5000 worth of jewelry and diamonds from Mrs. M. C. Gresley of $234 Da Mirada street, Hollywood.

"Baron" George Von Garden, self-styled European nobleman, and who was asserted to have engineered the jewel theft, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny and now is sorving a term of from one to ten years in San Quentin prison.

Probation Officer Neily expressed the opinion that Dean, who was said to have posed as Von Garden's "walet," had been imposed on by Von Garden.

Dependability-

In the past many people have hesitated to buy honey, because they didn't want to take a chance on quality. It might be good, but one couldn't be sure. Grocers have often felt the same way.

It is not enough to say that honey is pure. Pure honey may have a fine flavor, or it may be very strong and unpleasant. It depends on which flowers the bees work.

BOYDEN'S HONEY is a combination of the finest flavors, with mediocre ones left out. It is always the same and always good. Why not try it today. Give an added touch to the evening meal.

who has charge of the expenditure of millions of dollars of naval funds each year, will be in San Diego on the 22nd inst., for several days' inspection of various government enterprises.

At headquarters of the Eleventh Naval District preparations are now being made for Admiral Gregory's official visit. It is understood the admiral will make a thorough inspection of the naval projects, and the district headquarters will have a mass of facts and figures to lay before the distinguished visitor. Among projects the Navy is desirous of completing here is the pier to serve the big warehouse at the foot of Broadway, dredging to provide anchorage for the battle fleet also is desired, and belief has been expressed that by providing for the big ships some of the battleship division probably will be assigned here.

Admiral Gregory's visit will be connected with inspection trips to Puget Sound, San Francisco and Los Angeles harbors. During his stay here he will be the guest of Rear-Admiral Ashley Robertson, commandant of the Eleventh Naval District.

DISREGARD OF LIQUOR

STATUTE IS DEPLORED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Assertion that moral shame and humiliating disgrace has been brought on the nation by the disregarding of the prohibition law by a "relatively small number" of public officials, is made in a resolution adopted by the administrative committee of the Federal Council of Churches. The resolution, made public today, urged upon all public officials, including officers of the Army and Navy, "the imperative necessity of a conscientious and thorough-going personal observance of the law regarding alcoholic beverages."
